FOOTNOTES

- Students are strongly advised to take MAT 206. Additional credits taken are applied towards general electives.
- This requirement can be satisfied by taking a STEM variant. Additional credits taken are applied towards general electives.
- No more than two courses in any discipline or interdisciplinary field can be used to satisfy Flexible Core requirements.
- Students are strongly advised to take SPE 100 (or SPE 102) to satisfy this requirement.
- Students choosing to use curriculum requirements like ECO 201 and ECO 202 to satisfy the Flexible Core will be able to take their additional credits as general electives.
- If students take MAT 301 to satisfy their Quantitative Reasoning requirements they are advised to take MAT 302.
- Choose three upper level economics courses. These include ECO 215 (Environmental Economics), ECO 221 (International Economics), ECO 223 (Economic History), ECO 225 (Public Economics), ECO 226 (Development Economics), ECO 230 (Feminist and Gender Economics), ECO 229 (Economics of Antitrust and Regulation), and ECO 250 (Money and Banking).
It is recommended that BMCC students planning to transfer to Hunter take Economics electives courses which are TIPPS equivalent to Hunter's electives. Please note, courses without a minimum prerequisite of ECO 201 and/or 202 will not count towards Hunter's major electives. As such, it is recommended that students planning to transfer to Hunter Colleges take three courses from the following list of options to satisfy the major electives: ECO 230 (Feminist and Gender Economics), ECO 229 (Economics of Antitrust and Regulation), ECO 225 (Public Economics) at BMCC same as ECO 315 (Public Finance) at Hunter, ECO 226 (Development Economics) at BMCC same as ECO 330 (Economics Development) at Hunter, ECO 235 (Labor Economics) at BMCC same as ECO 345 (Men and Women in the Labor Market) at Hunter.
- Choose courses in anthropology, geography, history, philosophy, political science, psychology, sociology, or any Ethnic Studies social science offering.

G. AGREEMENT FOLLOW-UP PROCEDURES

1. Procedures for reviewing, updating, modifying or terminating agreement:

When either of the degree programs involved in this agreement undergoes a change, the agreement will be reviewed and revised accordingly by faculty from each institution's respective departments or programs, selected by their Chairpersons and/or program directors.

2. Procedures for evaluating agreement (i.e., tracking the number of students who transfer under the articulation agreement and their success):

Each year Hunter College will provide BMCC with the following information: a) the number of BMCC graduates who applied to the program; b) the number of BMCC students who were accepted into the program; c) the number of BMCC students who enrolled; and d) the aggregate GPA of these enrolled students at Hunter College.

3. Sending and receiving college procedures for publicizing agreement (e.g., college catalogs, transfer advisors, websites, etc.):

- This articulation agreement will be publicized on the BMCC website and the Hunter College website.
- Transfer advisors at BMCC will promote this agreement with eligible students.
